Paper 1 Short Answer/Data Response

May/June 2026

MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 80

Published

This mark scheme contains the instructions and marking guidance that our examiners used to mark candidate responses for this component.

Before they start marking, examiners complete a standardisation process. They review a range of candidate responses and discuss the mark scheme in detail to agree which answers can and cannot be accepted. Examiners award marks where it is clear that candidate responses have met the requirements of the mark scheme. These requirements may vary between different components or different versions of the same component, depending on the exact requirements of the question and the candidate responses seen during the standardisation process.

Sometimes, our mark schemes may allow marks to be awarded to responses which contain elements that are factually incorrect or for content not covered by the syllabus. We do this in response to the demands of a specific question to support candidates and make sure that our assessments are fair. However, these allowances should not be used as a guide for teaching and learning.

We cannot discuss the mark scheme with schools, and we recommend that schools read the mark scheme together with the assessment material and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

This document consists of 22 printed pages.

General marking principles

All examiners must apply these marking principles when marking candidate responses.

1	Examiners must award marks for each response in line with: - the specific content defined in the mark scheme - the specific skills defined in the mark scheme or in the level descriptions - the standard of response required as exemplified by the standardisation scripts.
2	Examiners must award whole marks (not half marks, or other fractions).
3	Examiners must award marks positively . This means that: - marks are not deducted for errors or omissions - marks are awarded for correct/valid answers as defined in the mark scheme and also for other valid answers which go beyond the scope of the syllabus and mark scheme referring to your team leader as appropriate - the quality of spelling, punctuation and grammar are judged only when the mark scheme indicates that these features are specifically assessed in the question. However, the meaning of all responses must be unambiguous.
4	Examiners must consistently apply the requirements of the mark scheme and any rules for what to do when candidates have not followed instructions correctly.
5	Examiners must use the full range of marks defined in the mark scheme, unless limited by the quality of the candidate responses seen.
6	Examiners must award marks according to the mark scheme and must not award marks with grade thresholds or grade descriptions in mind.

Social Sciences-Specific Marking Principles (for point-based marking)*1 Components using point-based marking:

- Point marking is often used to reward knowledge, understanding and application of skills. We give credit where the candidate's answer shows relevant knowledge, understanding and application of skills in answering the question. We do not give credit where the answer shows confusion.

From this it follows that we:

- a DO credit answers which are worded differently from the mark scheme if they clearly convey the same meaning (unless the mark scheme requires a specific term)
- b DO credit alternative answers/examples which are not written in the mark scheme if they are correct
- c DO credit answers where candidates give more than one correct answer in one prompt/numbered/scaffolded space where extended writing is required rather than list-type answers. For example, questions that require n reasons (e.g. State two reasons ...).
- d DO NOT credit answers simply for using a 'key term' unless that is all that is required. (Check for evidence it is understood and not used wrongly.)
- e DO NOT credit answers which are obviously self-contradicting or trying to cover all possibilities
- f DO NOT give further credit for what is effectively repetition of a correct point already credited unless the language itself is being tested. This applies equally to 'mirror statements' (i.e. polluted/not polluted).
- g DO NOT require spellings to be correct, unless this is part of the test. However spellings of syllabus terms must allow for clear and unambiguous separation from other syllabus terms with which they may be confused (e.g. corrasion/corrosion)

2 Presentation of mark scheme:

- Slashes (/) or the word 'or' separate alternative ways of making the same point.
- Semi colons (;) bullet points (•) or figures in brackets (1) separate different points.
- Content in the answer column in brackets is for examiner information/context to clarify the marking but is not required to earn the mark (except Accounting syllabuses where they indicate negative numbers).

3 Calculation questions:

- The mark scheme will show the steps in the most likely correct method(s), the mark for each step, the correct answer(s) and the mark for each answer
- If working/explanation is considered essential for full credit, this will be indicated in the question paper and in the mark scheme. In all other instances, the correct answer to a calculation should be given full credit, even if no supporting working is shown.
- Where the candidate uses a valid method which is not covered by the mark scheme, award equivalent marks for reaching equivalent stages.
- Where an answer makes use of a candidate's own incorrect figure from previous working, the 'own figure rule' applies: full marks will be given if a correct and complete method is used. Further guidance will be included in the mark scheme where necessary and any exceptions to this general principle will be noted.

4 Annotation:

- For point marking, ticks can be used to indicate correct answers and crosses can be used to indicate wrong answers. There is no direct relationship between ticks and marks. Ticks have no defined meaning for levels of response marking.
- For levels of response marking, the level awarded should be annotated on the script.
- Other annotations will be used by examiners as agreed during standardisation, and the meaning will be understood by all examiners who marked that paper.

Annotations guidance for centres

Examiners use a system of annotations as a shorthand for communicating their marking decisions to one another. Examiners are trained during the standardisation process on how and when to use annotations. The purpose of annotations is to inform the standardisation and monitoring processes and guide the supervising examiners when they are checking the work of examiners within their team. The meaning of annotations and how they are used is specific to each component and is understood by all examiners who mark the component.

We publish annotations in our mark schemes to help centres understand the annotations they may see on copies of scripts. Note that there may not be a direct correlation between the number of annotations on a script and the mark awarded. Similarly, the use of an annotation may not be an indication of the quality of the response.

The annotations listed below were available to examiners marking this component in this series.

Award 1 mark for identification of each relevant advantage/disadvantage (max 2) Award 1 mark for each relevant reference to this business (max 2). Award 1 mark for each relevant explanation (max 2). Points might include: Advantages: • No/low interest charged [k] so does not increase cash outflows [an] for this sole trader [app] • Can raise a large amount of finance [k] • Can test public reaction [k] and decide whether to start the business [an] • Builds customer relationship/create brand awareness [k] which could lead to more customers [an] for this small business [app] • May not need to repay/permanent [k] so does not add to its liabilities/debt [an] • No collateral/security/credit history needed [k] • May get advice/feedback [k] • Fast way to raise finance [k] • Maybe available when other sources of finance are not available [k] Disadvantages: • No guarantee can raise full amount / may not raise sufficient funds / not reliable source [k] must repay everyone if cannot raise full amount /so may need to find another source [an] for this new business [app] • Crowdfunding site may reject the proposal [k] therefore the owner's time has been wasted [an] • Competitors may learn more about your business before launch [k] and use Peter's ideas [an] for being a photographer [app] • A lot of paperwork [k] • Slow to organise [k] because media interest / publicity needs to be generated to increase chance of success [an] • Site may take a percentage of the funds raised [k] Other appropriate responses should be credited.	6	To use words from the stem as application, the reference must be appropriate (i.e. make sense) in relation to the point being made. The following words are likely to be appropriate for this question: • Start-up/new business • Small (business) • Weddings • Photographer or related words • Sole trader • Government support • Service Other appropriate examples can be credited. Notes: • Some points could be awarded as [k] or [an] but only award once. Question	Answer	Marks	Guidance
1(e)	Do you think the advantages of being a sole trader are greater than the disadvantages? Justify your answer. Award up to 2 marks for identification of relevant points. Award up to 2 marks for relevant development of points. Award up to 2 marks for justified decision about whether the advantages of being a sole trader are greater than the disadvantages. Points might include: Advantages: • Keep all the profit [k] so owner has an incentive to work harder / so can decide how to invest it [an] • Quick decision-making [k] so may be more responsive to changes in demand [an] • Complete control/own boss/all decisions[k]so less chance for disagreement/ no need to consult anyone before making decisions [an] • Has freedom to choose own holidays/work hours [k] to gain a better work/life balance [an] • Easy to set up/few legal requirements [k] • Financial information is kept private [k] • Maintains close contact with customers [k] Disadvantages: • Unlimited liability [k] so personal assets are at risk (if the business is unable to pay its debts) [an] • Limited/less access to finance [k] which could limit expansion [an] • No one to share workload/responsibility/control with [k] so less time to specialise on certain activities [an] • Few ideas / less knowledge/experience [k] which may restrict its ability to compete with competitors [an] • Carry all the risks/potential loss/costs [k] • Unincorporated/ no separate (legal) identity [k] • Lack of continuity [k] Other appropriate responses should be credited.	6	This is a generic question so there are no marks for application. Notes: • Some points can be [k] or [an] but only award once. Do not award: • Definitions • Points about other types of business organisation • Mirror arguments e.g. complete control as advantage and all the responsibility as the disadvantage

Question	Answer	Marks	Guidance
1(e)	Justification might include: One advantage is the owner can keep all the profit [k] so has an incentive to work harder [an]. However, having less access to finance [k] could limit expansion [an]. The disadvantages are greater, because if the business misses out on the opportunity to expand, this could result in less potential sales/revenue [eval] and if costs remain the same, there could be less potential profit. [eval]

Question	Answer	Marks	Guidance

Award 1 mark for each relevant explanation (max 2). Points might include: • Use quality control [k] where products are checked at the end of production/so defective products are not sold [an] from the factory [app] • Use quality assurance [k] where quality is checked throughout production [an] when making carpets [app] • Train/recruit skilled employees [k] as there are 80 employees [app] which could lead to less mistakes [an] • Use quality machinery/introduce new technology/automation [k] as currently use job production [app] • Use quality materials [k] therefore products last longer /are durable[an] • Continue using job production [k] Other appropriate responses should be credited.	6	To use words from the stem as application, the reference must be appropriate (i.e. make sense) in relation to the point being made. The following words are likely to be appropriate for this question: • Carpets or related words • Job production • 80 (employees) • Factory • $300 000 (current assets) • $240 000 (current liabilities) • $60 000 (working capital) • 1.25 (current ratio) Other appropriate examples can be credited. Award up to 2 marks for relevant development of points. Award up to 2 marks for justified decision about whether the advantages for a business of using job production are greater than the disadvantages. Points might include: Advantages: • Meet exact customer requirements / customized / specialised products [k] which increases customer loyalty/sales [an] • Unique/one-off/specialised products/USP[K] can charge higher price[an] • High-quality goods/services[k] which could lead to better brand image[an] • High motivation (of employees) [k] as some variety to work [an] few workers leave / less absenteeism [an] • Can charge high prices [k] which could increase profit margin [an] Disadvantages: • Products made to order/can take long time to make [k] so low output/ so mistakes can be expensive to correct [an] • No economies of scale (or examples) [k] increasing average/unit cost [an] • Skilled labour is needed [k] increases labour/training costs [an] • Labour intensive [k] Other appropriate responses should be credited. Justification might include: Job production allows the business to meet customer requirements [k] which can increase customer loyalty [an]. However, there are no economies of scale [k] leading to higher unit cost [an]. The advantages are greater because if customers get exactly what they want they may pay a higher price [eval], covering the higher costs involved in making the product. [eval]	6	This is a generic question so there are no marks for application. To access evaluation must refer to an advantage and disadvantage. For evaluation to be awarded justification will usually follow on from relevant analysis of points. Notes: • Some points can be [k] or [an] but do not award the same point twice.

Justification might include: Recruitment agencies [k] which saves administration time [an]. Another method is online recruitment sites [k] which can reach many people [an]. An online recruitment site is the best method because having access to a wider pool of people can make it easier to find the right person for the job [eval] which may reduce the need to readvertise in the future [eval].	6	This is a generic question so there are no marks for application. To access evaluation must discuss two relevant methods. For evaluation to be awarded justification will usually follow on from relevant analysis of points. 4(e)	Explain two reasons why a business might respond to environmental pressures. Which reason is likely to be the most important? Justify your answer. Award up to 2 marks for identification of relevant points. Award up to 2 marks for relevant development of points. Justification might include: One benefit is that it allows the business to avoid pressure group action [k] which may damage brand image [an]. It could also help differentiate the business from its competitors [k] which could allow them to set higher prices [an]. Avoiding pressure group action is likely to be most important reason because a bad reputation is likely to lead to fewer sales [eval] and customers may not be willing to buy the products whatever the price set [eval].	6	This is a generic question so there are no marks for application. To access evaluation must discuss two relevant reasons. For evaluation to be awarded justification will usually follow on from relevant analysis of points. Notes: • Some points could be awarded as [k] or [an], but only award once e.g. brand image, sales. • Some analysis can be awarded for different points, but only once. • Award only once 'don't respond will lose sales' or 'if do respond will attract sales' Accept as [an] only: • May attract workers • May attract investors Do not award: • Ways to respond to environmental pressures • Avoid being closed down • Ethical issues • Taxation/taxes on their own • Cheaper
